

55 Victoria Street, Potts Point

Historic freestanding Potts Point house with...

Perched high on the ridge of Potts Point in an incredible position overlooking the city and harbour, this landmark house affords a stunning opportunity in a superb location. An iconic freestanding residence – adjacent to the historic McElhorne Stairs – it offers a multitude of possibilities, with a large main home augmented by two other currently separate self-contained premises.

The main residence features a sweeping high-ceilinged living room with fireplace combined with an open plan kitchen and dining room, with all-day sun and uninterrupted views across to Sydney Harbour. Two bedrooms and modern bathroom on the bright upper level give a sunny sense of opulence, featuring wide-ranging views, while harbourside and streetfront balconies are a welcome addition.

On street level, a separate large 1-bedroom unit gives amazing scope while on the lower floor, an expansive sandstone-walled space stands ready for conversion to many uses. With massive choice to create a personal and enviable home, the options are plenty -leave as is or renovate throughout to create a grand near - city residence. With parking space on title and within easy of the CBD, the vibrant Macleay Street and Woolloomooloo, this is a rare chance to grab a prime slice of Potts Point property.
